

IS BECOMING

A new era of protection

An important message from our CEO, Kent Griffin

Dear [REDACTED]

At MLC Life Insurance, we're proud to be your trusted insurance partner and I am pleased to share some exciting news about our future together.

Nearly a decade ago, MLC Life Insurance became an independent life insurer with the strong support of Nippon Life, a global leader in the life insurance industry.

I am excited to share that Nippon Life will be substantially increasing its commitment in the Australian life insurance market and supporting our continued growth by announcing we will be merging with another long-standing provider in our industry, Resolution Life Australasia.

Together, we will be known as Acenda.

Acenda will be wholly owned and part of the Nippon Life Group, committed to bringing the Group's global strength and expertise to our customers and partners.

Acenda will build on the combined heritage of two long-standing Australian life insurance companies, to continue to provide peace of mind to you, our customers. Coming together, and as part of the Nippon Life Group, we will further strengthen our enduring commitment to putting customers at the heart of everything we do.

We're here for you, just like always

MLC Life Insurance will begin our transition to the Acenda brand and over time you will see and hear more of our new brand. Once the transaction is complete, we will merge with Resolution Life Australasia and continue the transition to Acenda together. Completion is subject to regulatory approvals.

I want to assure you that while we may be growing our organisation and changing our name, our ongoing commitment to you remains the same. That means that over the coming months, you'll get to know us by a new name and look, but many things will stay familiar.

Your level of cover and ability to make a claim will continue as normal. The standard you've come to expect from us will only get better. We will continue to be driven by our vision to secure tomorrow so people can embrace life today; offering more than protection, delivering confidence for life.

I look forward to keeping you up to date as we become Acenda. In the meantime, you can learn more and get answers to some frequently asked questions on our website.

MLC Life Insurance (soon to be Acenda)

Acenda

Say hello to Acenda

A new brand, for a new era of protection

On completion of the transaction, we will be unifying two long-standing Australian life insurance companies, taking our shared heritage of providing peace of mind to our customers, into a new era.

Together, we will reinforce our commitment to putting customers like you at the heart of everything we do. Acenda will secure your tomorrow so you can embrace life freely today.

Combining our strengths, Acenda will bring together:

- the strength and stability of one of the world's largest and leading insurers, Nippon Life Group
- innovative products and services
- best in class claims experience when you need it
- award-winning health, wellness, and recovery support for your everyday
- and flexible retirement income options to suit you.
